Where can I find my Unique Reference Number (URN)?

- Your URN for your Ordinary Shares and/or your abrdn Share Account (if applicable) can be found on your share certificates, tax vouchers and statements - this is commonly known as a Shareholder Reference Number.
- You can find your employee share plan URNs on any personalised communications sent to you about these plans.

Please note that you will only be able to add your company investments where you are the first named holder, with an address that matches one of those already displayed in your Share Portal Account.
