Step 2 All next of kin/executors should read the below Declaration

To: Equiniti and Barclays PLC.

I/We do solemnly and sincerely declare that:

- I am/we are the next of kin or executor(s) of the deceased as shown in the Last Will and Testament or foreign Grant of Representation and I am/we are entitled to administer the estate

In consideration of the above declaration I/we request that the holding registered in the name of the deceased holder be registered in my/our names, subject to the several conditions upon which the deceased held the same, without production of a UK Grant of Representation.

I/We (jointly and severally) agree:

- To indemnify you and each of you against all claims, demands, liabilities, costs, charges and expenses that may be brought against or incurred by you, or any of you, arising out of or in connection with your so doing including, in particular, payments of entitlements and costs and expenses to another applicant if any of the above statements are incorrect.

Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity Guidance Notes

To be read in conjunction with the enclosed Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity form

You should complete the form if the conditions set out in Step 2 of the form have been met. The Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity form also acts as a transfer form.

Note 1 In order to accurately identify the stated holding we require the details on the form to match our records. We therefore ask for a history of previous addresses. If the addresses exceed the space provided on the form, we will accept an accompanying letter.

Note 2 As next of kin (where there is no Will):

The form must be completed by the next of kin and returned with a copy of the shareholder's Death Certificate and any fee payable. Next of kin is defined as being married to, or a blood relative of, the deceased.

The recognised order of precedence is:

- Husband, Wife or Civil Partner of the deceased
- Son or daughter of the deceased (including formal adoption)
- Father or Mother of the deceased
- Brother or Sister of the deceased
- Grandparent or Grandchild of the deceased

Not recognised are any further relations by marriage, e.g. son/daughter-in-law, step-son/daughter.

Where the form is completed by more than one next of kin, shares will be transferred and future payments made to their joint names. For shares held in joint names the address given for the first named next of kin will be recorded as the registered address for all future communications.

As executor(s) named in a Will:

The form must be completed and returned with a copy of the Death Certificate, the Will or foreign Grant of Representation and any fee payable.

Where there is only one executor named in the Will the shares will be transferred and payments made to the sole executor.

Where there is more than one executor named in the Will and all persons wish to act, the details and signatures of all named executors must be entered on the form. The shares will be transferred to and all payments made in their joint names (N.B. a bank account in the joint names will be necessary). For shares held in joint names the address given for the first named executor will be recorded as the registered address for all future communications.

Where there is more than one executor named in the Will and the shares are to be transferred to only one, we will require only his/her details and signature on the form. This must be supported by a signed letter of authority from the remaining executors giving their agreement that the named executor can act on their behalf. The shares will be transferred and payments made to that named executor.

Note 3 A new EU Directive and Regulation – Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II (MiFID II) – requires us to collect information that we may not currently hold in order to complete certain transactions.

If the shares covered by this Small Estate transfer are held in Barclays Sharestore, and you choose on Step 4 of the Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity Form to continue to hold them in Barclays Sharestore, the attached MiFID II Form needs to be completed. We need the details of all next of kin/executors as well as the deceased shareholder.

The MiFID II Form does not need to be completed if you choose to withdraw the shares from Barclays Sharestore.

Turn this page over for more information and some examples to help you complete the form.

Note 3, Below are some examples to help you complete the MiFID II Form.

You can also go to our website – www.nationalitycalculator.co.uk – and enter your nationalities there. It will tell you the order in which to list them on the form and which National Client Identifier you need to provide.

If you are signing on behalf of a corporate body, we only need your 20-digit Legal Entity Identifier.

Single nationality

If you have only one nationality, write it in the Country 1 box and write your Primary or Secondary National Client Identifier in the National Client Identifier box. The identifiers we accept for your country are listed on the back of the MiFID II Form.

Please then tick to confirm if you have given your Primary or Secondary Identifier, or if you do not hold either.

Example: United Kingdom nationality

- Put 'United Kingdom' in the Country 1 box
- If you have your UK National Insurance Number, write it in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

Multiple nationalities

If you have more than one nationality, write them in the Country 1, Country 2 and Country 3 boxes in the order in which they are listed on the back of the MiFID II Form. We then need the Primary or, if allowed for the country, Secondary National Client Identifier for Country 1.

If you do not hold either the Primary or Secondary National Client Identifier for Country 1, please do not provide an Identifier for Country 2 or Country 3.

Example: United Kingdom and Czech Republic dual nationality

- Put 'Czech Republic' in the Country 1 box and 'United Kingdom' in the Country 2 box
- Write your National Identification Number (Rodné číslo) in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier, write your Czech Republic National Passport Number instead and tick the Secondary Identifier box
- If you do not have either of the Identifiers for Czech Republic, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

Countries not listed on the back of the MiFID II Form are in the 'All other countries' category, and should be entered last when you complete the form.

Example: United Kingdom and China dual nationality

- Put 'United Kingdom' in the Country 1 box and 'China' in the Country 2 box
- If you have your UK National Insurance Number, write it in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier for United Kingdom, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

If you are a national of two or more countries in the 'All other countries' category, you need to list them on the form in order of their Country Code. If you need help with this, please use our website, www.nationalitycalculator.co.uk, or call our helpline on 0371 384 2030 (+44 121 415 7047 if you are outside the UK).

Note 4 There may be outstanding holding payments to be released. The options provided in Step 5 of the form are the only way in which outstanding payments can be issued. If the selection is not clear the cheque(s) will be sent payable to the person(s) completing the form.

This only applies to outstanding payments, not future payments, e.g. sale proceeds, dividends.

Important: where there is more than one legal representative and you elect to have payments released in their names (the first option), the cheque(s) will be made payable to them jointly and you will need a corresponding joint bank account in order to cash them.

All forms and supporting documents need to be returned to:
Equiniti, Aspect House, Spencer Road, Lancing, West Sussex, BN99 6DA UK
