Section F What happens next?

1. If you are transferring certificate(s) from your own name, you will receive notification that your transfer has been initiated and the documentation sent to the registrar for registration into the Nominee name. Once the stock has been registered into the Nominee name, you will receive notification that the stock is available in your account which you can access using your investment account number and PIN.
2. If you are transferring stock from an Investment Trust Savings Scheme or the Crest Agent/Nominee of a financial institution, you will receive a notification that your transfer has been initiated. We will contact the other party and arrange for the stock to be transferred into our Nominee name. Once the stock has been registered into our Nominee name, you will receive notification that the stock is available in your account which you can access using your investment account number and PIN.
