

Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity

This form is to allow the Executor(s)/Next of Kin to transfer shares from a person who has passed away into their name(s) and provides information in regards to how the shares can be sold. Please note that completion of this form alone does not automatically sell the shares (see Step 7).

Please complete this form using block capitals and black ink. If you are not populating any of the boxes, please leave them blank. If you make a mistake cross it through and initial it. Please do not use correction fluid. Please read the guidance notes to ensure that the form is completed correctly which will avoid any delay in processing this request.

Step 1 Please give the details of the deceased shareholder (see note 1).

The terms and conditions for the Santander Nominee Service can be found at www.shareview.co.uk/info/CSN

Step 7 Selling the shares Important: Completing this form alone does not sell the shares.

If you want to sell the shares in the deceased's name, you may be able to use our Postal Share Dealing Service. To find out more, or to download a form, please visit www.shareview.co.uk/info/postaldealings

Please note we do not offer this service for shareholders with a registered address outside of the UK/European Economic Area (EEA).

Once you have completed both the Postal Share Dealing and Small Estate forms, please return them to the address stated in Step 10.

Please note that commission fees are applicable.

If you would prefer us to send you a Postal Share Dealing form or would like further information about this service please email us at bereavement@equiniti.com or telephone us on 0371 384 2793 (+44 121 415 0875 if you are outside the UK). Lines are open from 8.30am to 5.30pm (UK time) Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays in England and Wales.

There may be different options available to sell your shares. However in order to use these services you must first transfer the shares out of the name of the Shareholder who has passed away. If you wish to use another provider or one of Equiniti's other dealing services you must ensure step 5 of this form is completed.

Step 8 Please confirm how you want any outstanding payments to be released (see note 4).

Step 9 Paying the Small Estate fees

You can pay us by bank transfer by using our bank details below:

- The death certificate (only the original death certificate will be returned via standard post).
- Any unpaid cheques or original share certificate(s) relating to this holding

A cheque or postal order made payable to 'Equiniti'. Please ensure that the cheque is signed, dated and the words and figures match.

Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity Guidance Notes

To be read in conjunction with the enclosed Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity form

You should complete the form if the conditions set out in Step 2 of the form have been met. The Small Estate Declaration and Indemnity form also acts as a transfer form.

Note 1 In order to accurately identify the stated holding we require the details on the form to match our records. We therefore ask for a history of previous addresses. If the addresses exceed the space provided on the form, we will accept an accompanying letter.

Note 2 As next of kin (where there is no Will):

The form must be completed by the next of kin and returned with a copy of the shareholder's Death Certificate and any fee payable. Next of kin is defined as being married to, or a blood relative of, the deceased.

The recognised order of precedence is:

- Husband, Wife or Civil Partner of the deceased
- Son or daughter of the deceased (including formal adoption)
- Father or Mother of the deceased
- Brother or Sister of the deceased
- Grandparent or Grandchild of the deceased

Not recognised are any further relations by marriage, e.g. son/daughter-in-law, step-son/daughter.

Where the form is completed by more than one next of kin, shares will be transferred and future payments made to their joint names. For shares held in joint names the address given for the first named next of kin will be recorded as the registered address for all future communications.

As executor(s) named in a Will:

The form must be completed and returned with a copy of the Death Certificate, the Will or foreign Grant of Representation and any fee payable.

Where there is only one executor named in the Will the shares will be transferred and payments made to the sole executor.

Where there is more than one executor named in the Will and all persons wish to act, the details and signatures of all named executors must be entered on the form. The shares will be transferred to and all payments made in their joint names (N.B. a bank account in the joint names will be necessary). For shares held in joint names the address given for the first named executor will be recorded as the registered address for all future communications.

Where there is more than one executor named in the Will and the shares are to be transferred to only one, we will require only his/her details and signature on the form. This must be supported by a signed letter of authority from the remaining executors giving their agreement that the named executor can act on their behalf. The shares will be transferred and payments made to that named executor.

Note 3 There may be outstanding holding payments to be released. The options provided in Step 8 of the form are the only way in which outstanding payments can be issued. If the selection is not clear the cheque(s) will be sent payable to the person(s) completing the form.

This only applies to outstanding payments, not future payments, e.g. sale proceeds, dividends.

Important: where there is more than one legal representative and you elect to have payments released in their names (the first option), the cheque(s) will be made payable to them jointly and you will need a corresponding joint bank account in order to cash them.

Note 4 A new EU Directive and Regulation – Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II (MiFID II) – requires us to collect information that we may not currently hold in order to complete certain transactions.

Because the shares are held in the Santander Nominee Service, the attached MiFID II Form needs to be completed. We need the details of all next of kin/executors as well as the deceased shareholder.

Below are some examples to help you complete the MiFID II Form.

You can also go to our website – www.nationalitycalculator.co.uk – and enter your nationalities there. It will tell you the order in which to list them on the form and which National Client Identifier you need to provide.

If you are signing on behalf of a corporate body, we only need your 20-digit Legal Entity Identifier.

Single nationality

If you have only one nationality, write it in the Country 1 box and write your Primary or Secondary National Client Identifier in the National Client Identifier box. The identifiers we accept for your country are listed on the back of the MiFID II Form.

Please then tick to confirm if you have given your Primary or Secondary Identifier, or if you do not hold either.

Example: United Kingdom nationality

- Put 'United Kingdom' in the Country 1 box
- If you have your UK National Insurance Number, write it in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

Multiple nationalities

If you have more than one nationality, write them in the Country 1, Country 2 and Country 3 boxes in the order in which they are listed on the back of the MiFID II Form. We then need the Primary or, if allowed for the country, Secondary National Client Identifier for Country 1.

If you do not hold either the Primary or Secondary National Client Identifier for Country 1, please do not provide an Identifier for Country 2 or Country 3.

Example: United Kingdom and Czech Republic dual nationality

- Put 'Czech Republic' in the Country 1 box and 'United Kingdom' in the Country 2 box
- Write your National Identification Number (Rodné číslo) in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier, write your Czech Republic National Passport Number instead and tick the Secondary Identifier box
- If you do not have either of the Identifiers for Czech Republic, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

Countries not listed on the back of the MiFID II Form are in the 'All other countries' category, and should be entered last when you complete the form.

Example: United Kingdom and China dual nationality

- Put 'United Kingdom' in the Country 1 box and 'China' in the Country 2 box
- If you have your UK National Insurance Number, write it in the National Client Identifier box then tick the Primary Identifier box
- If you do not have the Primary Identifier for United Kingdom, tick the I do not hold any National Client Identifiers box

If you are a national of two or more countries in the 'All other countries' category, you need to list them on the form in order of their Country Code. If you need help with this, please use our website, www.nationalitycalculator.co.uk, or call our helpline on 0371 384 2000 (+44 121 415 7188 if you are outside the UK).

All forms and supporting documents need to be returned to:
Santander Nominee Service, Aspect House, Spencer Road
Lancing, West Sussex, BN99 6DA UK
